Numb. 7216.

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, December 1. 1724.

Dantzick, November 14.

LETTERS from the Frontiers of Muscovy and Turkey speak of nothing but the great Preparations of War which are making by the Turks, and no body yet knows the design of them. It is not to be imagined that they have an Eye upon the Czar, considering the Treaty concluded lately between the Court of Russia and the Porte; but it is feared, this may be for a Diversion in case of a War with some other Powers, which makes the Governours of the Polish Frontiers keep themselves upon the Watch. The Resident of Russia began to buy up Corn here, but he has since held his Hand in hopes that the Price will fall. There is a Man dead here aged 110 Years, whose Wife died about two Years ago at 90, having left one Daughter who is now almost 70.

Vienna, Nov. 11. It is assured, that the Envoy of Wertemberg will receive the Investiture of Montbelliard in the Beginning of January next, in the Name of the Duke his Master. The Duke of Mecklemberg has sent hither by an Express, a Protest against the Attempt of the Imperial Commission to lett out his Demesnes, the Injustice whereof he will expose very soon in Print. Count Wratislau, our Ambassadour at the Dyet of Poland, has acquainted our Court, that certain foreign Troops are already upon their full March towards the Polish Frontiers on the Side of Courland. Since the Prohibition lately made to the Jesuits by the Imperial Court, those good Fathers are bold enough to use hard Words from the Pulpit against it; whereupon the Pope's Nuncio has severely reprimanded them in the Emperour's Presence.

Ratisbon, Nov. 16. The Ministers of the Duke of Mecklemberg here, seem to be very uneasy that the Ministers attending the Dyet have not yet received any Instructions upon the Circular Letters which the Duke their Master has wrote to the States of the Empire; mean while they omit nothing to recommend their Master's Concerns to the Dyet, for which purpose they communicated some Days ago an Extract of one of the Duke's Letters dated Dantzick November 2. wherein his Highness makes heavy Complaints of the Hardships which increase every Day in his Dominions; particularly that the Oaks of his Forest are felled and sold, by which his Highness not only suffers an irretrievable Damage, but his fine Chase is likewise spoiled: Moreover, that his Highness's Brother at Grabau, will not allow his Huntsmen to take Care of the Forest, and that some Hundreds of Game are killed every Year; and lastly, that the subdelegated Counsellours at Rostock presume to issue out Ordinances to the Clergy about spiritual Matters, threatning Execution if they do not conform. Baron Kirchner is shortly expected here from Vienna, and as it is said, with a favourable Resolution in Regard to the Religious Affairs in the Empire.

Hambourg, Nov. 21. 'Captain Prætorius, who 'has been confined in the Kindel of Copenhagen, 'is carried to Rensburg [illegible] Guard of four Subaltern Officers and one Lieutenant, in order to 'be confronted there with Count Rantzau, before 'the Commission appointed by the King of Denmark: We long to hear whether he will persist 'in his obstinate Denial of the Fact charged upon 'him, in which Case he will be put to the Rack. 'The Letters we have received this Day from 'Domitz import, that upon an express Order from 'the Duke of Mecklemberg, the Commandant 'of that Place has injoyned all the Officers under 'his Command, to augment their Companies with '10 Men; and whereas the Garrison is now 3000 'Men, it will by this Augmentation amount to near '5000. The King of Denmark has ordered the 'Garrison of Drago, in the Dutchy of Holstein, to 'be reinforced, and injoyned the proper Officers to 'make an Inventory of the whole Estate belonging 'to the Count de Rantzau, the greatest Part whereof does not belong to him solely, but in common 'with the Duke of Holstein.

Paris, Nov. 24. 'Some Days ago the Duke of 'Orleans held at the Palais Royal a Chapter of the 'Order of St. Lazare, in which he created several 'Knights: That Order grows every Day more and 'more in Esteem, and is increased one Third since 'the Duke of Orleans was made Grand Master of 'it. 'Tis confirmed that the young Queen Dowager of Spain will shortly return to France; and it 'is even said, that the Spanish Ambassadour made 'the first Proposal of it to the King, and afterwards 'to the Duke of Orleans, to which both readily 'agreed. To this they add, that the said Princess 'will make her first Residence at Villers Cotterets, '20 Leagues distant from Paris, and afterwards 'be allowed to live in the Castle of St. Germain 'en Laye, as did the late Queen Dowager of England; from whence she will have the Liberty to 'make from Time to Time her Court to the King, 'and to visit her near Relations; and this, because 'her Case is different from that of the old Queen 'Dowager of Spain, now at Bayonne, and who 'was sent out of the Kingdom for particular Reasons of State, &c. His Majesty has given Leave 'to M. de Lile, Astronomer, to go to Petersbourg, 'to give his Directions for an Observatory the Czar 'has a Mind to build there; for which Purpose, 'his Czarish Majesty has promised great Encouragement to the said M. de Lile. 'The Sale of 'the fine Collection of Manuscripts of the late Madame la Princesse began here some Days ago. 'M. Guiton, Chaplain to the Dutch Ambassadour, 'is constantly there, and buys up whatever he 'thinks most curious, to be afterwards sold again 'by the Booksellers at the Hague, who have given 'him that Commission. The Library of the late 'first President de Mesmes will likewise be sold at 'the End of this Month. The Magistrates of Harlem in Holland, in Imitation of those of Utrecht, 'have of late chosen a Bishop for the Roman Catholicks within their District: This Bishop will 'be consecrated without the Pope's Bull, as the 'Archbishop of Utrecht has been.

Paris, Nov. 27. 'The Officers of the King's 'Guards are extreamly set against the Marshal de 'Villars, since they have discovered that it was he 'who proposed in Council to take from them the Pay 'allowed vilege of riding on the Side of the King's Coach; They will no more Dine at his Table as they did formerly, neither do the King's Guards ſtamp with their Feet as they uſed to do when he paſſed through their Guard-Chamber, and take no more Notice of him than of a private Perſon.
